

The Cranfield MBA New Zealand Alumni Scholarship

INTRODUCTION

New Zealanders have a proud tradition of success at Cranfield and in recent years New Zealanders on the course have taken academic honours and leadership awards. Cranfield has also been fundamental in energising the careers of a growing global community of New Zealand alumni. Building on this, the School, together with its New Zealand alumni, are excited to offer the Cranfield New Zealand Alumni Scholarship for outstanding candidates.

THE SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship is open to anyone of New Zealand origin (New Zealand citizens or permanent residents) anywhere in the world.

The scholarship covers full tuition fees for the full-time MBA course (£33,000). The NZ-UK Link Foundation will pay for the airfare from New Zealand to the UK, and a contribution towards living expenses of up to NZ$10,000 may also be available.

REQUIREMENTS/DEADLINES

To apply for the scholarship, candidates must first have been offered a place on the Cranfield MBA course. They will also need to have obtained a minimum GMAT score of 600 or have passed the Cranfield Admission Test. Candidates with GMAT will need to submit their MBA application via the Cranfield website by 30 April 2012 and those wishing to take the Cranfield Admission Test by 10 February 2012.

APPLY NOW

*All applicants for the scholarship will need to submit a separate application by 31 May 2012.

"Cranfield's remote location means that the cohort is very closely bonded; the bond is certainly much stronger than you would find in inner city schools. In a world which is all about networking, you really get the chance to develop deep relationships with your fellow MBAs".

Adrian Wood, MBA 2008, winner of inaugural New Zealand Alumni Scholarship

watch interview with Vivian Ho - Full-time MBA
New Zealand Scholarship Winner 2011

Cranfield
UNIVERSITY
School of Management